A former Assistant Store Manager (the “Plaintiff”) has brought a collective action lawsuit against The Kroger Company and Dillon Companies, LLC a/k/a King Soopers, Inc. d/b/a King Soopers/City Market (“King Soopers/City Market”), claiming that King Soopers/City Market misclassified him and other Assistant Store Managers as “exempt” employees and failed to pay them overtime for working more than 40 hours a week as required by the Fair Labor Standards Act (“FLSA”) and Colorado state law.

1. Why did I get this notice?

You are receiving this notice because King Soopers/City Market’s records show that you were employed as an Assistant Store Manager for at least one week between July 7, 2017 and January 25, 2021. The Court has authorized this notice to be sent to you and other Assistant Store Managers to inform you of the case and your right to join it.

2. What is this lawsuit about?

The lawsuit alleges that King Soopers/City Market improperly classified Assistant Store Managers as “exempt” employees and failed to pay them overtime for hours worked over 40 in a workweek. The Plaintiff alleges that Assistant Store Managers spend the majority of their time helping customers, moving freight, stocking shelves, building displays, counting inventory, cleaning the store, and otherwise standing in as cashiers, stockers, or other hourly workers. The Plaintiff alleges that Assistant Store Managers should be classified as “non-exempt” employees and paid overtime compensation under the FLSA and Colorado state law. The Plaintiff seeks to recover overtime wages and an additional equal amount as liquidated damages, plus attorneys’ fees and costs, for himself and all other Assistant Store Managers who join the lawsuit.

Fees may be part of a settlement obtained or money judgment entered in favor of Plaintiff, or may be ordered by the Court to be separately paid by King Soopers/City Market or may be a combination of the two.
